St. James's, April 14.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Somerſet, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Prowſe, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by the Hon. Vere, Ann, and —— Poulet, Eſqrs. Sir R. Bamfield, Sir C. Tynte, Sir R. Groſvenor, Sir C. Wyndham, Baronets, and other Gentlemen of the County, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held at Taunton, for the County of Somerſet, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, That we will, upon any Invaſion on this Kingdom, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, or any other Perſon or Power, moſt chearfully and readily ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, Royal Family and Government.

We beg Leave alſo to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will moſt ſtrenuouſly exert ourſelves, in our ſeveral Stations, and uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to detect all Diſaffection and Diſloyalty, and to bring all Offenders to Juſtice that ſhall attempt to diſturb the Peace and Tranquility of this Kingdom.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Albert Nesbitt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Huntingdon.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave humbly to return your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Acknowledgments for the wiſe Precautions your Majeſty has taken for the Preſervation of the Liberties of this Nation, when they were inſolently ſtruck at by the common Diſturbers of the Peace of Europe, in a threatned Invaſion in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to the Crown of theſe Realms.

The Behaviour of France, in pretending to have received Injuries from a Nation they have inſulted, and openly attempted to reduce to Ruin and Slavery, fills your Majeſty's faithful Subjects with the utmoſt Indignation; and we think that the Honour of this Kingdom will greatly ſuffer, unleſs that haughty Power is made to repent of its Inſolence, which, we doubt not, but that we ſhall in a ſhort Time ſee effected, as we have the utmoſt Confidence in your Majeſty's Wiſdom, which we are ſatisfy'd will direct your Majeſty to the Proſecution of ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be conducive to the Glory and Welfare of your People.

We likewiſe beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as we are highly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; and as we are convinced that the Security of the Proteſtant Religion, and the Maintenance of the Honour, the Rights, and the Liberties of this Kingdom has been your Majeſty's chief and conſtant Care, we ſhould think ourſelves wanting in our Duty, were we to omit throwing ourſelves before your Majeſty's Throne, moſt humbly to expreſs our Gratitude for paſt Benefits; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in your Majeſty's Support, and in Defence of the Liberties of this Nation, which we are perſuaded can only ſubſiſt under the Protection of your Majeſty and your Royal Family.

Given under the common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the 2d Day of April, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's happy Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir James Lowther, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Cumberland : Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, humbly beg Leave to teſtify our juſt Indignation for the Affronts offer'd to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, by the Attempts of a foreign Power to invade theſe Kingdoms in Favour of a popiſh Pretender ; and at the ſame Time to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of your Care and Vigilance, in defeating their dark and ambitious Deſigns. And ſince the lawleſs Ambition of the ſame reſtleſs Enemy to the Liberties of Europe (after finding her private Schemes againſt your Britiſh Dominions, as well as her publick Views of aggrandizing her Power by the Deſtruction of the Houſe of Auſtria, fruſtrated by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and by your perſonal Courage and Conduct in the Field) has prompted her, in Defiance of the moſt ſacred Treaties, to menace your Majeſty with open War, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, of our moſt ardent Zeal for promoting your Majeſty's Service, as well by our Prayers to the Almighty for the Succeſs of your Arms, as alſo by all other lawful Means within our Power.

Permit us likewiſe, moſt gracious Sovereign, with Hearts full of Duty and Gratitude, to acknowledge the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, in the Protection of our Religion, Liberties and Trade, the grateful Senſe whereof, and the Hopes of having them tranſmitted ſafe to our remoteſt Poſterity, through the Succeſſion eſtabliſhed in your illuſtrious Houſe, will ever animate us with a ſuitable Zeal for the Support of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all Invaders of your Crown and Dignity, whether foreign or domeſtick. We are,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects.

Whitehaven, March 30, 1744.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Wallingford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Bance and John Ruſh, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and Robert Clucks, Eſq; their Recorder, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Wallingford, in Common Council aſſembled, crave Leave to declare our juſt Abhorrence of the intended Invaſion and Attempts againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Kingdoms, by the Common Diſturbers of the Peace of Chriſtendom, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender ; and, with Hearts full of Duty, to acknowledge our moſt unfeigned Allegiance and Readineſs, in ſupporting, to the utmoſt of our Power, your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms ; being truly ſenſible, that our Religion, Laws and Liberties (the moſt ſacred and valuable Bleſſings in this Life) are preſerved and ſecured in the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, under your Majeſty's Royal Protection.

We fully hope, that the Almighty Power, which preſerved your Royal Perſon in the late glorious Victory of Dettingen, will defeat the open and ſecret Machinations of the Pretender and his Adherents, the determined Enemies to our excellent Conſtitution ; heartily praying, that your Majeſty may enjoy a long and proſperous Reign, and that there never may be wanting one of your Royal Lineage to reign over us.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the ſeventeenth Day of March, in the ſeventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Steward, and all the Inhabitants of the Borough of Stockbridge, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Matthew Lamb and Charles Churchill, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who were introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Steward, and all the Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Stockbridge, in the County of Southampton.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude titude for the Happineſs and Liberty we poſſeſs under your Majeſty's moſt mild and gentle Adminiſtration; and to declare our Abhorrence of the inſolent Endeavours of France to interrupt that Happineſs, and to intrude on us a popiſh Pretender, not only a pretended Prince, but on this Occaſion a pretended Proteſtant alſo, born in a popiſh Country, and bred up in all the blind Superſtition of the Court and Church of Rome.

It is our determined Reſolution, with our utmoſt Vigour, and to the Hazard of all that is dear to us in the World, to ſtand by and ſupport your Majeſty, and to oppoſe thoſe Endeavours, and all other Pretenders whatſoever.

And it is our earneſt Prayer, that the ſame good Providence, which was ſo propitious to your Majeſty in the Day of Battle, may always attend your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, that your Majeſty's and the Kingdom's Enemies may always be cloathed with Shame and Diſappointment, and that the Scepter of theſe Kingdoms may never depart from your Majeſty's Royal Family.

Done and ſigned at your Majeſty's Court held for the ſaid Borough, this 28th Day of March, 1744.

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governour, Bailif, Jurates of the Royal Court, and other principal Inhabitants of the Iſland of Guernſey, having been tranſmitted to the Right Hon. the Earl of Hartford, Governour of the ſaid Iſland, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governour, Bailif, Jurates of the Royal Court, and other principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to aſſure your moſt ſacred Majeſty of our utmoſt Horror and Deteſtation at the Attempt lately formed of invading your Majeſty's Dominions, and of our inviolable Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the moſt illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, whereby ſo many invaluable Bleſſings were derived upon, and are ſtill continued to your Majeſty's Subjects.

That a popiſh Pretender ſhould preſume to form the Deſign of attacking your Majeſty, in the midſt of Subjects who continually feel the kind Influences of your Majeſty's mild Government, and are firmly ſecured in the Enjoyment of all that is valuable in Life; and that he ſhould be ſupported in ſo deſperate and inconſiderate an Undertaking, by a Prince with whom your Majeſty is in Friendſhip and Amity, argues the raſheſt Stupidity in the one, and utmoſt Perfidiouſneſs in the other; but to our inexpreſſible Joy, their Demerit and Arrogance have been in Part chaſtiſed, ſince the Alacrity which your Majeſty's loyal Subjects ſtruggled with to be foremoſt in making theſe bold and inſolent Diſturbers of the publick Peace, feel the Weight of their juſt Reſentment and Indignation at the Indignity offered to the Nation as well as to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon: And the intervening Hand of Providence (which by ſcattering their Numbers, has diſſipated the leaſt Shadow of Fear in us) muſt needs have convinc'd them, that ſo injurious an Attempt was no leſs diſpleaſing to God, than ſhocking to the Body of the People, and alſo aſſured them of being ſhamefully defeated whenever they ſhall preſume to offer the like Inſult.

May the Divine Protection, who cover'd your Royal Perſon from Danger in the Day of Battle, and defeated ſince the perfidious Deſigns of your Majeſty's Enemies, continue to preſerve your Majeſty from the Malice of ſecret as well as open Foes; and may the Divine Goodneſs ſhed his Bleſſings upon your People, by granting your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over them, and continue the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms in your Royal Iſſue to the lateſt Poſterity. Theſe are the ſincereſt Vows and Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects.

Guernſey, March 22, 1743.

The following Addreſs of the People call'd Quakers, in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To George the Second, King of Great Britain, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The humble Addreſs of his Proteſtant Subjects, the People called Quakers, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

WE thy dutiful and peaceable Subjects, with Hearts truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings and Privileges we enjoy under thy paternal Care and Protection, beg Leave, at this critical Conjuncture, (when thy Dominions are threatned with an Invaſion, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender,) to expreſs our ſincere and hearty Abhorrence of all Plots and Conſpiracies againſt thy Perſon and Government.

Duty, Gratitude and Intereſt unite to engage us in a firm Attachment to thy Royal Perſon and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in thy illuſtrious Houſe, and we are determined, by Divine Aſſiſtance, to continue unſhaken in theſe Sentiments, ments, and, conformable to our known Principles, to do the utmoſt in our Power for promoting the Peace and Welfare of this Nation.

The kind Indulgence granted us by the Legiſlature in our Religious Scruples, the free Acceſs we have had to the ſeveral chief Governors of this Kingdom ſince thy Acceſſion to the Throne, and the Readineſs ſhewn for our Relief, whereof we retain the moſt grateful and lively Senſe, lay us under additional Obligations of Duty and Fidelity.

May the ſame Divine Providence that defeated the Attempts of the Enemies of our Conſtitution, in the Rebellion againſt thy Royal Father, and which hath lately protected thee in imminent Danger, preſerve thee and thy Royal Family from the wicked Deſigns of all your Enemies, whether Foreign or Domeſtick: May the Almighty guide thy Counſels by his Wiſdom, and render them effectual for the Re-eſtabliſhment of Peace and Tranquility, and grant thee a long and proſperous Reign over us: May the Britiſh Throne be always filled with one of thy Royal Off-ſpring, to tranſmit the Bleſſings we enjoy to future Ages.

Sign'd in Behalf of the ſaid People.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Bandon Bridge, in the County of Cork, and Kingdom of Ireland, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Bandon Bridge, in the County of Cork, and Kingdom of Ireland. Sealed with our Seal the 23d Day of March, 1743.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of your truly Proteſtant Borough of Bandon Bridge, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the late happy Diſcovery of the horrid Invaſion deſigned and attempted againſt your Majeſty's Dominions in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, ſupported from Abroad by a moſt arbitrary, tyrannical Power, and encouraged (we fear) by ſome deſperate Traitors at Home.

We are truly ſenſible of the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and moſt auſpicious Government; and therefore, with Hearts full of Gratitude, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, That we are moſt reſolutely determined, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport and defend your Majeſty, and your juſt and undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, againſt all Attempts whatſoever.

We further beg Leave to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on the Accounts we have received of the glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms; and we reſt aſſured, that the ſame good Providence, which preſerved your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon in the Day of Battle, will, by the great Example of your Majeſty's Valour, Wiſdom and Virtue, animate and inſpire all your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects, with Power, Courage and Loyalty, ſufficient to oppoſe, detect, and bring to condign Puniſhment, all your Majeſty's open and ſecret Enemies, being the fervent and conſtant Prayers of,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Sovereign, Burgeſſes, Commonalty, and other the Proteſtant Inhabitants of the Town of Kinſale, in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sovereign, Burgeſſes, Commonalty, and other the Proteſtant Inhabitants of the Town of Kinſale, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgeſſes, Commonalty, and other the Proteſtant Inhabitants of the Town of Kinſale, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as your Majeſty's Dominions are threatned with an Invaſion, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, to which we have the greateſt Abhorrence, we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, ſupport and defend your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of your illuſtrious Family, under which we have enjoyed ſo many invaluable Bleſſings.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, on Thurſday the Twenty-ſecond Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred forty and three, having heard that Attempts have been forming, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, to diſturb the Peace of theſe your Majeſty's Kingdoms, by the Aid of a Foreign Power, the common Diſturbers of the Peace and Tranquility of Europe, and to interrupt the Happineſs we ſo amply enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, for the Support of which, and the general Cauſe of Europe, your Majeſty ſo lately expoſed your Royal Perſon,

Humbly beg Leave to take this our earlieſt Opportunity of expreſſing our great Concern for, and Abhorrence of the Indignity intended to your Royal Perſon and Government, and againſt the Tranquility of your Majeſty's Kingdoms, as well as the Raſhneſs of ſo inſolent an Undertaking.

And as we are moſt truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt mild and prudent Adminiſtration, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, of our inviolable Zeal and ſincereſt Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Government.

And that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, as well on this as all other Occaſions, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, exert ourſelves in Defence of your Royal Perſon and Government, and illuſtrious Family, under whom alone our Religion, Laws and Liberties, can be ſafe. And we doubt not, but that by your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Vigilance, and the Bleſſing of God on your Arms, theſe Attempts of our Enemies will be entirely fruſtrated, and tend only more firmly to unite the Hearts and Affections of your Majeſty's loyal Proteſtant Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our hearty Abhorrence of the Deſigns in Agitation of invading your Majeſty's Kingdoms in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

The uninterrupted Enjoyment of all our Rights, civil and religious, ſince the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe to the Crown of theſe Realms, and the many Inſtances we have had of your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your People, will be ever had in moſt grateful Remembrance by us. And we perſuade ourſelves, that Obligations of this Sort have ſo united all your Majeſty's Subjects, that every Attempt to deprive us of that Happineſs will be rendered vain and ineffectual, it being impoſſible to ſhake a Throne that is ſtrengthened by the Juſtice of a King, and guarded by the Affections of his People.

We further beg Leave to aſſure our moſt gracious Sovereign, that we will not only at this critical Juncture, but on every other Occaſion, exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt of our Power, and think our Lives and Fortunes only valuable, as they can aſſiſt in preſerving to us the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Government, and in ſupporting the Succeſſion of the Crown in your Royal Line, upon which our Happineſs and that of our Poſterity depends.

Given under our common Seal this 28th Day of March, 1744.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Antrim, and Kingdom of Ireland, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secrataries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Antrim, and Kingdom of Ireland, at an Aſſizes and General Goal Delivery held at Carrickfergus, the Seventeenth Day of March 1743.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Antrim, think it incumbent on us, upon this Occaſion, to expreſs our grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt mild and excellent Government, our great Zeal, Loyalty and Affection for your Majeſty and your moſt illuſtrious Family, and our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the wicked and inſolent Schemes of your Enemies, who have the Impudence to attempt to introduce and ſupport a popiſh Pretender to the Crown of theſe Realms.

This County had the Honour firſt to receive the Great King William the Third, of immortal Memory; and as we have a juſt Senſe of the Bleſſings firſt ſo glorioufly conveyed to us thro' him, and ſince continued to us in ſo ample a Manner by your Majeſty, and your moſt illuſtrious Houſe, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, with the ſincereſt Hearts, full of that Loyalty and Affection due to ſo good a Prince, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, ſupport your Majeſty againſt the Pretender and all his Adherents; and will oppoſe, with the laſt Drop of our Blood, the ambitious and perfidious Deſigns of France, or any other Power who ſhall dare to diſturb the Felicity and Tranquility we now enjoy.

We do farther aſſure your Majeſty, that, ſhould any Perſons among us, (which God forbid) be ſo deſperate in their Circumſtances, or abandoned in their Principles, as to ſupport ſo iniquitous a Cauſe, we will be as active and vigilant as poſſible to detect them, and ſtrictly rigorous in puniſhing them with all the Severity that ſo enormous and infamous a Crime moſt juſtly deſerves.

The Wiſdom and Conduct of our moſt excellent Governor, at this Time ſo conſpicuous, joined with the Unanimity and Spirit of your Majeſty's moſt zealous Proteſtant Subjects, leave us no Room to doubt, but that, in this Kingdom, we ſhall be able to defeat the Deſigns of thoſe who would oppreſs and enſlave us; and we pray to God Almighty, that your Majeſty may be victorious in all other Parts of the World, triumphing over your Enemies, and chaſtiſing the Arrogance and Impudence of thoſe who preſume to attack you.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other the Freeholders of the County of Tyrone, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other the Freeholders of the County of Tyrone, at an Aſſizes held at Omagh in the ſaid County, the Seventeenth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty three.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty, our juſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the late inſolent and perfidious Attempt to invade your Majeſty's Dominions, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown.

It fills us with inexpreſſible Amazement, that any of your Majeſty's Subjects, happy in the uninterrupted Enjoyment of Civil and Religious Liberty, ſhould traiterouſly encourage a Deſign to deſtroy the Proteſtant Succeſſion, ſo happily eſtabliſhed in your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe, the only Security, under Heaven, for the Continuance of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings to us and our Poſterity.

Your Majeſty's glorious Example cannot fail to animate thoſe who can diſtinguiſh between Liberty and Slavery, between pure Religion and the moſt deteſtable Superſtition: And the ſame Divine Providence which ſo ſignally protected your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon in the late important Day of Battle, will, we truſt, proſper your Majeſty's Councils, and the zealous Endeavours of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, againſt all the raſh and impotent Attempts of an abjured Pretender, his Deſcendants, and all other his ſecret, or avowed Abettors.

We beg Leave, on our Parts, to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and of our determined Reſolution, on all Occaſions, to maintain and defend, at the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

And we beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humbleſt Thanks, for continuing to entruſt the Care of this Kingdom, on this important Occaſion, with your Majeſty's Lord Lieutenant his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, whoſe known Attachment to your Majeſty's Family, will be the greateſt Encouragement to your loyal Subjects to uſe their beſt and ſincereſt Endeavours to render his Grace's Adminiſtration eaſy to him, and honourable and beneficial to your Majeſty.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Surry, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Onſlow, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, accompanied by ſeveral principal Gentlemen of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Surry.

Dread Sovereign,

THAT the Wiſdom of your Majeſty, and the Prudence of your Counſels, have fruſtrated the inſolent Efforts of an ambitious Power, in in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to the Throne of theſe Realms, muſt fill each loyal Heart with the greateſt Joy, at the ſame Time that it excites a juſt Indignation, and moſt ſincere Abhorrence of ſo deſperate and infamous an Attempt; — an Attempt, formed, not only againſt your known Right to the Crown, but againſt the Liberty and Property of all your faithful Subjects.

The many and valuable Bleſſings we receive under your moſt auſpicious and gentle Government, and the true and pleaſing Senſe we have of the free and full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights, under ſo juſt and glorious a Prince, who rules us with the ſtricteſt Regard to our Laws and Liberties, cannot but inſpire a moſt active Ardour in every grateful and loyal Breaſt, to ſupport, to the utmoſt, your Royal Perſon and Family, in your juſt and undoubted Title to the Crown of theſe Realms.

We therefore beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we All are ready on this, and every Occaſion, at the Hazard of whatever is moſt dear to us, to unite and exert ourſelves in the common Cauſe of our Country; and that we cannot be influenced or miſled by the Artifices and deluſive Pretences of France, always our natural, but now our declared Enemy; but will ever perſevere in acknowledging, with the greateſt Gratitude, that on the Stability of your Majeſty's Throne, not only the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms in Particular, but the Liberty of Europe in General, depends.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff of the County of Haddingtoun, and of the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County, and of others the Noblemen, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the ſaid County, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Charles Hay, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff of the County of Hadingtoun, and of the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County, aſſembled at the Adjournment of their Quarter Seſſions, and of others the Noblemen, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the ſaid County.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IT was with equal Surprize and Indignation, we heard the French were preparing to invade your Majeſty's Kingdoms in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, and in Concert with diſaffected Perſons at Home.

We cannot expreſs how ſenſible we are, that the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Country, can only be ſecured by the Continuance of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Royal Family.

Permit us, amongſt the many of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, that have ſhewn ſuch Spirit and Eagerneſs to puniſh the Fraud and Preſumption of France, to declare to your Majeſty, it is our firm and fixed Reſolution, to exert ourſelves, in this critical Juncture, in ſupporting and defending your Majeſty, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in this juſt and neceſſary War againſt France and Spain, and all other of your Enemies at Home or Abroad.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, we will take the greateſt Care to maintain and preſerve the Peace and Quiet of this County in particular, by a due Execution of the Powers veſted in us by Law.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Brecon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Thomas Morgan, Eſq; Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, accompanied by the Hon. John Jeffreys, Eſq; Repreſentative for the County, and the Hon. John Talbot, Eſq; Member for the Town of Brecon, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Gentlemen, aſſembled at the Grand Seſſions held at Brecon, for the County of Brecon, the 30th Day of March, 1744.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, take this firſt Opportunity, moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty, to declare our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the inſolent and daring Attempt, form'd by the common Diſturbers of the Peace of Europe, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Throne.

As we are truly ſenſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt gracious Government, both in Church and State, and that the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, do, (under God) entirely depend on the Continuance of your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe upon the Throne of theſe Realms,

We beg Leave to give your Majeſty our moſt firm and hearty Aſſurance, that we will, at all Times, with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, ſupport and defend your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, againſt France, our declared Enemy, or any other Power that ſhall preſume to diſturb the Peace of theſe Kingdoms.

The following Addreſs of the High Steward, Alderman, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Corporation of Wokingham, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Berks: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Alderman, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham, within the Counties of Berks and Wilts, and within your Majeſty's Foreſt of Windſor.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, ſhould think ourſelves guilty of the greateſt Ingratitude to the beſt of Kings, if we did not lay hold on this, and all Opportunities, of teſtifying to the World, the thorough Senſe we have of the many Bleſſings we derive from your Majeſty's Government, and of the many Miſeries which muſt inevitably fall upon us, ſhould the wicked Enviers of our preſent Happineſs, be able to ſucceed in their unnatural Attempts.

It is a Truth, clear and inconteſtable, that in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Family, the Preſervation of all our civil and religious Rights intirely depend. If any are ſo blind as not to ſee it, (and if any ſuch there are, we do proclaim aloud our utter Deteſtation of them) their Darkneſs muſt ariſe from Romiſh Bigottry and Superſtition, improved by the falſe and lying Artifices of popiſh Emiſſaries.

But permit us, Great Sir, whoſe Hearts are full of the Conviction of it, moſt humbly to approach your Royal Preſence, moſt humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our unſhaken Loyalty and Zeal; and that we are, and ever ſhall be, moſt ready and willing, to devote ourſelves, our Lives and Fortunes, in the Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion happily eſtabliſhed in your illuſtrious Family.

Petersbourg, March 20. The Feſtivals, which the Empreſs intends to celebrate at Moſcow, on Account of the Peace with Sweden, are to begin the 5th of next Month, and to continue till the 25th, the Anniverſary of her Imperial Majeſty's Coronation; and it is generally believed, that in the Beginning of May, her Majeſty will go to Kioff. His Sardinian Majeſty's advanced Poſts on the Borders of the River, after ſpending a few Shot on the firſt Troops that appeared, retired, according to their Orders, towards the Intrenchments; and by an Eſtaſette arrived from Nice laſt Night, it is to be preſumed the Enemy is march'd into the Town, which being incapable of making any Defence, muſt have opened its Gates. We ſhall now ſee, whether they proceed to the Attack of Montalban only, or will not rather endeavour to go round about by the upper Part of the Mountains, and try to poſſeſs themſelves of ſome of the Poſts in the Rear with one Part of their Troops, while the other takes the Intrenchments in the Front. Prince Lobcowitz was on the 25th paſt at Fermo, in Expectation of Orders from Vienna. The laſt Courier from Rome has brougnt an Account, that his Sicilian Majeſty was actually at the Head of his Troops, and would immediately join M. de Gages. Turin, April 6, N. S. We hear from Villa Franca, that Admiral Matthews, with the Britiſh Fleet under his Command, was every Hour expected there; that the Antelope and Nonſuch were juſt arrived; and that the former, with the Dartmouth, had been immediately ſent down to St. Tropez, where three Britiſh Men of War were actually blockading a Convoy of 14 Tranſports and three French Gallies loaden with Troops, and deſigned for St. Auſpice, on the other Side of the Caſtle of Villa Franca, and from whence both that Fort and our Intrenchments might have been taken in the Rear.

She mounted ſix Carriage Guns, ſix large Braſs Swivel Guns of three Pounders, and 12 Iron Patteteroes, and carried 80 Men.
